

ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT

Carroll Community College (CCC), a community college in Carroll County, Maryland, and Hood College (Hood), a four-year college in Frederick, MD agree to the following Enrollment Agreement.

PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

This Enrollment Agreement will set expectations for administrators, faculty and staff at both institutions and foster a working relationship between the parties.

ADMINISTRATIVE PRINCIPLES

Under this Enrollment Agreement, CCC students who have a cumulative 2.0 GPA or higher will:

1. Receive guaranteed admission to Hood.
2. Be considered for transfer scholarships if they are eligible. CCC students will be eligible for a renewable (number of semesters determined at time of admission) transfer merit scholarship based on full-time enrollment upon transfer:

Scholarship Name	Amount	Minimum GPA for Scholarship Consideration
Leaders' Scholarship	40% of tuition	3.50
Trailblazer Scholarship	33% of tuition	3.00
Recognition Award	25% of tuition	2.50

3. Have the ability to interview on-campus at Hood to increase their merit scholarship. CCC students not already eligible for the Leaders' Scholarship may be considered for an increase to their transfer merit scholarship amount, based on an on-campus interview.
4. Have access to an Academic Success Counselor who will work with CCC students through the admission process and during their first year at Hood as both an academic and non-academic resource.
5. CCC students who transfer to Hood and enroll on a full-time basis will be awarded a special CCC Scholar Scholarship in the amount of $500 per semester.
6. CCC students who have achieved membership in Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society will receive a $1,000 per semester scholarship.
7. Students are eligible for one, or all, of the above scholarships.

The following general principles guide the operation of this Enrollment Agreement:
